

The Wedding Guide

CAPTURING AUTHENTIC, DIMENSIONAL, ORGANIC MOMENTS
DOCUMENTARY PHOTOJOURNALISM & PHOTOGRAPHY EDUCATION

Your wedding day should be about the beginning of your marriage, not about a bossy photographer running your day.

That is why my approach to wedding photography is about documenting your day.

I hope you look back at your wedding day and remember how you and your guests were feeling and not what a photographer told you to do.

My goal at every wedding is to capture the moments you might have missed. It is about capturing RAW emotions. With an unobtrusive approach aiming to blend in with the day and make connections with you and your guests, I can capture the natural essence of the day.

The images you receive will be fresh, dynamic, and unique; they are not recreations of someone else's day or moments.

You get to relax and enjoy your wedding day. I capture the humor, love, and joy.

LIFESTYLE ENGAGEMENT SESSION

CONGRATULATIONS; your engaged. An engagement session is, quite simply, a portrait session of you and your future spouse. Some clients opt for an engagement session to fulfill a specific purpose. Sometimes it's for Save the Date cards to be displayed at your wedding reception, or to be incorporated into your wedding website. A Lifestyle engagement session is all about capturing your pre-wedding excitement in a session that is authentically you as a couple, in the most cherished location. These sessions are intimate and authentic. When it comes to the session site, I encourage couples to pick a location that is meaningful to them as a couple; the place they fell in love; their favorite date; or a house they have made a home.

WEDDING PACKAGES

Our documentary approach of taking photos of your wedding day is candidly, naturally, and without direction. We tell your story of your day, in a genuine, discreet way, capturing the moment as it happens, like a storyteller, without the narrator. It steps away from the traditional format of wedding photography; the all posed, grip, and grin pictures that seem to trend in today's wedding photography.
